

Brexit and the Implications on Supply and Use of Chemicals in Irish Businesses

November 1st 2018,
Sheraton Hotel Athlone

REGISTER HERE

This seminar aims to inform Irish companies who use and supply chemicals of the possible implications of Brexit on their business. The speakers are experienced inspectors from the Chemicals and Prevention Division of the HSA, along with a representative from ibec to give the industry perspective and an expert from ECHA, the European Chemicals Agency. The combined knowledge and experience of the speakers makes this seminar an opportunity not to be missed. The seminar is free of charge but space is limited so book early to ensure your place. If you have any questions, please email chemicals@hsa.ie.
