Dangerous Substances Act 1972 (DSA) – Petroleum (Petrol) Storage Licence

Obtaining a DSA Licence

Under the DSA all petrol stores, retail or private, must be licenced by the local or harbour authority or if the petrol store is owned or operated by such an authority, licenced by the Minister for Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation (DJEI).

Persons seeking a DSA licence must contact their local or harbour authority or the Minister as appropriate.

Licence Appeals

In the event a DSA licence is refused by the local or harbour authority, an appeal may be made within 10 days to the Minister for Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation.

DJEI Contact details for licencing or appeals:

Dangerous Substances Licencing
Safety, Health and Chemicals Policy Unit
Department of Jobs, Enterprise and Innovation
Davitt House
65A Adelaide Road
Dublin 2
D02 TW27
Ireland

Ph. + 353 (0)1 6313189
Fax. + 353 (0)1 6313263
dangerous.substances@djei.ie